R. C. CEMENT PLANT PART OF MERGER

$20,000,000 Group Consolidation Planned

FOUR COMPANIES

'Standard' Name to Be Taken for Alliance

Affecting the Redwood City plant of the Pacific Portland Cement Company, a $20,000,000 merger of four cement manufacturing concerns in California is under way today.

The plans include the Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company plant at Davenport, Cal., the Pacific Portland Cement Company's plants at Redwood City and San Juan; Calaveras Portland Cement Company's plant in Calaveras county and the Yosemite Portland Cement Company at Merced.

"Standard" Is New Name

Officials of these companies and their attorneys are preparing drafts of consolidation to be submitted to the boards of these companies at their next meeting for approval of the directors and stockholders.

The consolidated company is to be called the Standard Cement Company and will have its principal place of business in San Francisco, where all these companies now maintain their head offices.

These companies now supply cement to California, Nevada, Oregon, Hawaiian islands and the Panama canal.

Headed by Peninsulans

The Redwood City plant is headed by Robert B. Henderson, of Hillsborough; the Santa Cruz firm by the William H. Crocker interests, also of Hillsborough, and the Calaveras company by William Wallace Mein, of Woodside.

A. Emery Wishon heads the Merced plant.

One of the officials stated that the amount of capitalization of the Standard Company would be 2,000,000 shares of no par value; that the attorneys and accountants would have further details, shortly, at which time complete information would be available.

Began Here In 1924

The Pacific Portland Cement Company had its original plant at Tolenas in Solano county, where cement was first made thirty years ago. About 1924 it commenced operations in its present plant at Redwood City, where it makes cement from oyster shells dredged from the bay.

Later it acquired the plant of the Old Mission Portland Cement Company at San Juan, which was known as one of the Fleishhacker companies. About this time it abandoned operations at Tolenas and confined itself to the manufacture of cement at these two plants. The plant at San Juan, due to the present limited market, is now in operation.

Founded In 1906

The Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company's plant was built at Davenport in 1906 and was at that time one of the largest cement plants in the United States. This plant has been in continuous operation there since that time.

In 1918, the Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company merged with the Standard Portland Cement Company, which then had a plant manufacturing cement at Napa Junction. This plant manufactured cement from 1904 to 1918; it having been shut down during the war.

The Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company is controlled by the W. H. Crocker interests.

The Calaveras Cement Company and the Yosemite Portland Cement Company have both been built and put in operation in recent years.

Harris Not After County Managership

The following letter from Mr. M. A. Harris is self-explanatory:

My Dear Mr. O'Keefe:

I note in your December 2nd issue that it is rumored that I aspire to be county manager under the new charter.

It would be much appreciated if you will correct this rumor in your next issue as at no time have I indicated even an inclination to be interested in the position, hence the publicity places me in a false light. Mr. Howell has voiced the same sentiments to me.

Thanking you and with kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,
M. A. HARRIS.

Redwood City,
December 5, 1932.

BANDMASTER

Max L. Gelber, director of instrumental music at Sequoia Union High School, who will direct the high school band Friday evening in a program of popular music at the Sequoia Theater.

School Band to Be Entertainers Here Tonight

A program of popular marches, novelty numbers, and a comic selection featuring Tom Kane, will be presented here tonight at the Sequoia Theatre by the Sequoia high school band, under the direction of Max L. Gelber. The band program is taking the place of "discovery night" this week.

The entertainment will include such popular numbers as Souza's "King Cotton March," "The Glow Worm," and "On the Mall." The trombone section of the band will be featured in a novelty number and J. Orlo Hayes, San Jose. Bertram Whiting will be heard in a clarinet solo, a fantasy arrangement of the folk song, "Long, Long Ago." "Eurterpean Overture" will be played by the full band of 50 instruments.

Tom Kane, whose comic abilities will be revealed anew here tonight in the role of a Russian bandmaster, will lead the number, "The Village Band."

The band is composed of the following members: John Argo, George Baron, Richard Chard, John Canning, Dorothy Denton, Kenneth Diehl, John Diehl, Keith Douglass, Horace Duckenfield, Billy Dusel, James Easton, Carl Ellertson, Frank Falk, Glenn Fischer, Ray Gibson, Earl Hardy, Josephine Hogevoll, Delmar Holson, Jack Knight, Wallace Turner, Charles Luscher, Jack Mead, Addison Medefind, Mildred M. Mills, John Mollison, Kathryn Morris, Eldon Mabie.

Glen Peterson, Bill Quan, Harry Regnart, George Schroeder, Jack Schroeder, Frank Savage, Roscoe Savage, Alice Swift, Jimmy Tognola, Howard Warner, Philip Weed, Wilbur Woodhams, Arthur von Zook, Ronald McKillop, Jack Erlan, Glenne Knight, Jerry Smith, Don Marshall, Bert Whiting, and Bill Graef.

Slot Machine Raid Staged At 'Ballyhoo'

A raid by Sheriff James J. McGrath on the Ballyhoo Inn, formerly the "Bungalow," on El Camino Real, at San Bruno, netted two slot machines on Saturday night.

As a result, District Attorney Edmund Scott has issued a warrant for the arrest of Dan Cochrane, asserted owner of the machines, charging two counts. One count charges possession of a nickle-playing machine, and the other of a 25-cent playing machine.

Hickey Resigns as Boulevard Director

Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey, South San Francisco, who will be replaced on the board after January 1 by Albert J. Witt, who was elected in August, Monday resigned as a director of the Junipero Serra boulevard district. Chairman Manuel Francis delayed naming a successor.

Supervisors in Move for Wine

Inclusion of light wines in any repeal attempts in congress was voted Monday by the board of supervisors at the request of the Grape Growers' League of California, which reported a $350,000,000 investment at issue.

The board also received 10 applications for light wine and beer sale permits, which were filed for consideration at the proper time.

MORE TIME SOUGHT BY RAILROAD

Western Pacific In Request for New Extension

YEAR WANTED

Financing of Local Line Impossible Now, Assertion

The Western Pacific California Railroad Company, subsidiary of the Western Pacific Railroad Company, has applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a year's extension of time, that is, until January 1, 1934, in which to begin construction of the all-rail line between San Francisco and Niles, via Redwood City, and a similar extension of time in which to complete the work.

The application states that in consequence of the continued general depression it is impossible for the Western Pacific to market securities at a price which would justify their issuance and sale, making it impossible under existing conditions to satisfactorily finance the construction, and hence the extension of time is requested.

Permission to build the peninsula line was obtained by the Western Pacific January 19, 1931, to become effective a month later.

The first period of time allowed was three months, which was subsequently extended to six months, and then a year. The present request for an extension thus makes the fourth since the permit for the line was allowed.

Fred Johnson To Be Belmont Police Chief

BELMONT, Dec. 8—Fred Johnson, Jr., will be Belmont's new chief of police, according to action taken last night at the meeting of the city council. The appointment was made when the office held by Chief of Police Irvin Hansen was declared vacant. Hansen was present at the meeting. Johnson is a local garage man.

The city council donated $25 toward the municipal Christmas tree celebration, and City Attorney Albert S. Mansfield made a donation of $5.

Chief of Police Johnson reported that he had collected $400, as city tax licenses, from various business firms in Belmont.

City Engineer William W. Hendricks reported that the storm sewer being installed on Sixth avenue under the $350,000 county relief work program will be completed tomorrow. This work has been done at a saving of $75 under the original estimate. The paving on the south side of Ralston boulevard was also completed at a saving of $320 below the original estimate, stated the engineer.

Half of Belmont's crew will be put to work on widening Middle road and the remaining half will start laying the foundation for a sidewalk to be placed on El Camino Real from Ralston boulevard to the post office building, reported Engineer Hendricks.

It has cost the city $623 for the purchase of storm sewer pipe for this work. Belmont's quota of the relief bond will be approximately $3300.

'Private' Garbage Dumps in Creeks and on Vacant Lots Condemned at Council Meet

Private garbage dumps in various creeks within the city limits, and on vacant lots, were scored at a meeting of the city council last Monday.

Several of the councilmen, including Mayor W. J. Dusel, Charles G. Lambert and Henry Beeger, reported unsanitary and unsightly conditions, which are largely responsible for the passage of the ordinance giving the city control of garbage collections. This ordinance will soon become effective, and will give the city authority to deal with persons who dump their garbage promiscuously.

Men employed by the city on drainage projects, under the provisions of the county job relief bonds, have been cleaning out the creeks, and it was suggested Monday that warning signs be posted wherever private garbage dumps are found.

At the request of the Greater South Redwood Improvement Club, through E. Fau, secretary, and Councilman Robert N. Jones, the council asked City Attorney Albert Mansfield to prepare a statement concerning the present status of the Hudson street extension project.

The club desired to know why some property owners have not received the necessary papers relating to the deeding over to the city of land needed for the extension.

The Knights of Pythias were granted permission to hold dances on December 9, 16 and 23 for the benefit of unemployed members of the order.

To Codify Laws

City Manager E. A. Rolison, in a communication to the council, said there was a great need for repealing such ancient ordinances of the city as may now be ineffective, and for properly codifying those that are subject to enforcement.

Since July 30, 1897, there have been 388 ordinances passed, and it is often difficult, if not impossible to tell whether there is a law covering a situation which arises.

City Attorney Mansfield said he would work on this matter and bring the city's laws up to date.

Members of the council will attend a meeting of the Peninsula League of Municipalities, to be held in the Benj. Franklin Hotel, San Mateo, at 6:30 o'clock on Thursday, December 8. C. A. Buck, mayor of Burlingame, is president and H. A. Mason, secretary. The league will discuss the disposition of sewage.

Favor Highway Plan

Councilman McCarthy moved, seconded by Lambert, the adoption of a resolution favoring the addition of 6624 miles to the state highway system, as proposed by the two major automobile clubs of California.

The plan is to relieve the supervisors of the large burden now borne by them out of their gas tax funds. The apportionment to each county, as heretofore, of one-third of the total proceeds

FIFTH AVE. EXTENSION PLEA HEARD

Reference Made to Petition Filed With Board

North Fair Oaks Club Declares Road Is Needed

Need for extension of Fifth avenue, North Fair Oaks, from the Middlefield road to the Bayshore highway through the Canine property, was called to the supervisors' attention for the second time Monday with a request for immediate action.

Roy M. Gordon, North Fair Oaks realty man, referred to the petition filed with the board August 15 by 204 residents of the area.

Supervisor John W. Poole, Redwood City, in whose district the road is situated, agreed that the Fifth avenue extension is the logical one in that area. He said that he had agreed with Howard J. Canine, owner of the tract, to build the road if a right of way were granted, but that no decision had been reached as yet.

Gordon declared Canine was ready to do whatever he could to help along the project.

The board, therefore, referred the matter to Supervisor Poole with a request that he confer with Canine to see what could be worked out to give the needed artery.

Gordon, who was speaking for the North Fair Oaks Improvement Club, said the road is badly needed as there is none now existing between Redwood City and Palo Alto by which North Fair Oaks and Atherton residents can make a direct connection with the Bayshore Highway.

BREAD FOR DESTITUTE FINANCED

Benefit Play Given Two Nights Makes About $300

RED CROSS FLOUR

Good Crowd Turns Out Saturday Evening

There will be bread for Redwood City's unemployed and their dependents this winter.

This is assured today as a result of the community's response at two performances of the Sequoia Players' benefit play, "The Shannons of Broadway," proceeds from which will be used to bake into bread the 20 tons of Red Cross flour allotted to this district.

Although final accounting of proceeds from the play has not been completed, it is estimated by Amerigo Rossi of the ticket sales committee that approximately $300—enough to supply bread for three months—will be realized from the play.

An audience as large as that of the opening night was in attendance Saturday evening for another excellent performance by the high school cast, directed by C. A. van Patten. Success of the play was a dual tribute to the quality of Sequoia dramatics and to the community's interest in caring for its own.

According to the ticket committee, there were 1400 tickets distributed for advance and box office sales, and virtually 100 per cent of those taken by service clubs and other organizations was sold. Tabulation of box office returns is expected to place the total figure at $300 and possibly $350, Rossi states.

Co-operating with Director van Patten and his high school cast in the production of the play were the Redwood City unemployment relief group's committee, headed by Chairman Henry Witte, and orchestras of the high school and the Redwood City Fire Department.

BOOTS, GUNS LEFT BEHIND BY HUNTERS

Peninsula Gun Club At Newark Scene Of Raid

CAPTURE FOILED

Shed Heavy Shoes In Flight Before Wardens

Wholesale butcherers of wild ducks fled barefooted through cultivated fields and marshlands across the bay at Newark Wednesday, dropping shotguns, boots and socks as deputy game wardens unsuccessfully closed in upon them.

No two of the three boots left behind were mates.

The wardens, McPherson Lough and Frank Boomhower, both of Palo Alto, lay in wait at the Peninsula Gun Club's pond one mile south of Newark early today.

Suddenly, at 1 o'clock, there was a barrage of shots. Three or four figures were seen stalking toward the pond with sacks, picking up the birds as they went along.

Lough and Boomhower, shouting to halt, rushed toward the "bootleg" hunters.

Dropping four sacks partly filled with ducks (which caused the deputies to believe four men were involved) and two automatic shotguns, the hunters doffed their long boots and woolen socks and fled barefooted toward their car.

Arriving at the pond, the wardens counted 92 dead ducks and found scores of crippled birds.

They turned the guns over to George Webber, Palo Alto police expert, who will examine the fingerprints in the hope of running down one or more of the men.

The story of the slaughter was brought back here by Superior Judge Franklin Swart, who had gone to the pond early today to hunt. He is one of a list of prominent peninsulans who own the duck club. Others include Attorney Hall C. Ross, Councilman Henry Beeger and City Attorney Albert Mansfield.

S. F. Man and Girl Killed Instantly as Car Skids On Sharp Curve on Skyline

A San Francisco man and an attractive neighborhood girl friend were killed Thursday when their light roadster skidded on a sharp curve on the Skyline boulevard near the San Francisco county line and overturned.

The man was identified as Johan Fredericksen, 25, of 43 Linda street, San Francisco.

The girl was identified as Ellen Hapala, an attractive neighbor of the Fredericksens.

On hearing of the death of her husband, Mrs. Frederickson became hysterical and could give no explanation of why the two were traveling together when the fatal mishap occurred.

Two Farewell Poems

San Mateo county authorities found two farewell poems in the pockets of the man's clothing which brought up the possibility that the two deaths were the result of a weird suicide pact.

The notes led to a theory that Fredericksen may have taken the curve at high speed in a deliberate attempt to wreck the machine and take his own and the girl's life.

One of the notes, a poem signed "Ted," said:

"I have not been as true to you as you have been to me," and asked foregiveness.

Agents Find Body

Four federal officers returning to San Francisco came upon the wrecked car and the bodies. The bodies were removed to a Daly City chapel, and Dr. J. C. McGovern prepared to hold the inquests Tuesday.

Board Delays Charter Until Next Monday

Although all opposition to the charter was withdrawn, the board of supervisors Monday held up until next Monday the submission of the document to the legislature for ratification when it meets next month.

Attorney W. H. Morrissey, who represented Jack Griffin in an attempt to thwart presentation of the charter to the legislature but lost the case Saturday before Superior Judge R. R. Syer, said he wished at this time to remove all objection to the charter going to Sacramento.

The board, however, had not expected so timely a decision and having set the matter for hearing on December 12, refused to reconsider today.

Logan Request For Transfer Is Being Accepted

Capt. James B. Logan's request to be transferred from San Mateo county to head some other state traffic department is in the process of being granted by Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol, the board of supervisors was informed Monday.

Permission to transfer Logan was asked by Cato and was given by the board on motion of Supervisor C. V. Thompson, seconded by Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey.

Cato did not indicate to which county Logan would be transferred. Logan has been off duty on a temporary leave of absence requested by him to recuperate from injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

McNutt to Be Guest At Bar Dinner Soon

The San Mateo County Bar Association will hold a regular session at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel on December 15. Judge McNutt, superior judge-elect, will be the guest of honor.

The new judge and Judge Franklin Swart are to confer in a few days for the purpose of setting cases for the January calendar. Perhaps at this meeting new rules for the court may be made.

Exercise Care In Giving Boys Gifts

Parents are warned in making gifts to their sons that they refrain from giving them firearms, particularly the .22 rifle. The boys used them carelessly and many times injure the innocent passerby. Only last Sunday, Daniel Ostrom, the local printer, was entering his home when a bullet from a .22 rifle grazed his arm.

Had the missile pierced his body, it would have resulted in death. Fathers beware and don't place in your boy's hand instruments of death.

McSweeney Sees Tax Delinquency Small

Without a two weeks' check up, Tax Collector A. McSweeney says that the payment of county taxes will be normal. The delinquency is to be trivial.

At the city hall it was learned that there will only be a small delinquency. This is certainly encouraging to all. It demonstrates that there is plenty of money in the locality. When money is scarce the taxes go delinquent.

Syer May Sit On County's Garbage Ban

San Mateo county's garbage "war" was continued by Superior Judge Franklin Swart today to December 17, when Superior Judge R. R. Syer of San Jose may preside to hear the restraining order sought by San Francisco city and garbage interests.

At the same time, a demurrer and motion to strike filed by District Attorney Edmund Scott will be heard.

San Francisco city officials are seeking the right to dispose of garbage on Bayshore lands of the Southern Pacific. The county has taken up the plea of the Bayshore Sanitary District for relief, and District Attorney Scott is defending the district's anti-garbage ordinance.

Counsel will agree on a judge, who will be appointed by the Judicial Council.

Three Felons Of S. M. County In Parole Bid

Three San Mateo county prisoners—a robber, a school burglar, and a furniture thief—are among the list of 58 cases seeking parole from San Quentin during December.

The applicants for parole are E. A. Gates, Marion Comly and C. R. Henderson.

Gates is serving 10 years on a grand theft charge following his arrest in Burlingame on July 6, 1929, in an attempt to empty a house of furniture which he had rented a short time previously. He was also accused of passing a series of worthless checks. Gates received a 10-year sentence. O. A. Redmond, his companion, got 7½ years.

Comly was convicted with Richard O'Laughlin of robbing Carl Yearian on Brewster avenue near Elwood street of $2.95 on the night of December 17, 1926. Each received 15-year sentences. They were sent to San Quentin on January 18, 1927.

Henderson was convicted of robbing a Redwood City elementary school building of $9 cash and two watches. He was given a 15-year sentence. He was arrested on December 4, 1927, and sent to San Quentin on January 6, 1928.

Relief Appeal Renewed; Food Store to Open

Final plans for the opening of a food distribution store in the old postoffice quarters on Broadway Friday under the auspices of the Redwood City unemployment relief committee were considered at Monday's weekly meeting, at which Chairman C. B. Stoner presided.

Coincident with the prospective opening of the store, Chairman Stoner renewed the committee's appeal to the community for cash contributions and donations of canned goods through The Tribune's Community Cupboard for the maintenance of the store, which will be open once each week.

T. J. Hallinan, food relief chairman, will be in charge of issuing requisitions for food for unemployed and their dependents.

JUDGES NOT TO ACT IN CO. CHARTER

Jurists Decline to Risk Posts on Bench

LITIGATION SEEN

Matter Apparently Will Have to Go To High Court

San Mateo county's charter provision that the two superior judges shall serve on a qualification board to help select prospective candidates for the position of chief executive is definitely unworkable without a supreme court ruling sustaining it.

Maxwell McNutt, judge-elect of Department No. 1 of the superior court, will not serve in that capacity, and Superior Judge Franklin Swart likewise indicated his reluctance to risk his position by complying with the duties set out in the charter.

Both judges fear that should they carry out the charter duties by setting up the qualification board the act would be virtually a "resignation" from their positions.

They will not risk the six-year jobs to set up the qualification board.

As a result, the chief executive cannot be appointed under the existing provisions of the charter.

"Until the question of legality of the charter and its disputed point is settled by a higher court, I would not want to serve on the qualification board," Judge Swart said in substance.

McNutt revealed that he had been studying porvisions of the county charter for some weeks and had become convinced that the clause relating to the qualification board was invalid and that it probably invalidated the charter.

"I am not an opponent of the charter," said McNutt, "and I regret that it is necessary for me to take this position, but I could not conscientiously do otherwise.

"To attempt to carry out certain provisions of the charter would automatically remove me from office for the state constitution expressly forbids a superior court judge from accepting any public employment or public office.

"I have firmly believed in the necessity of the charter and have been its advocate from the start. With other men and women who live in San Mateo county and pay taxes here it has long been evident that we needed to replace the expensive and antiquated system under which we are operating.

"It was therefore with the greatest regret that I came to the conclusion, upon close study of charter provisions, that it was unworkable in its present form."

Judge R. R. Syer of San Jose, stating that if the point of view of Attorneys W. H. Morrissey and David Cosgrave were true that the judges would "resign" if they acted on the qualification board, said naturally the jurists would hesitate before risking their positions.

This opinion was expressed Saturday when Judge Syer threw out of court as premature the attack by Morrissey.

Judge-elect McNutt holds the same view that the test should await ratification by the legislature.

When the charter is ratified, McNutt and Swart will probably refuse to act. At that time, Attorneys J. W. Coleberd, Arthur Redington and Ernest Wilson, who helped write the legal phraseology of the charter, will be called upon to mandamus them to act. The supreme court will then rule as to the legality of the disputed phrase.

Free Will Practice Law In New York

It is said that Congressman Arthur Free, who was defeated at the recent election, will join a prominent law firm in New York after the adjournment of congress on March 4. Mr. Free is an able lawyer and will do well in the big city. He will probably maintain an office in Washington.

BRIGHTNESS APPEARS WHERE ONLY DARKNESS PREVAILED

The depression is over and gone and happy days are here again. Next spring the factories will open and by summer a great portion of the unemployed will be back to work again. The financial distress of the past three years will only be a memory, though to some a bitter one. All things point to a speedy recovery.

The fact that the payment of taxes this week in both city and county was normal, demonstrates that there is still plenty of money in this community.

The Frank Tannery received a large order for leather from Chicago this week, showing that trade is picking up in the locality. Other huge shipments from the local plant are expected shortly. It requires numerous men to move the commodity and still many more to move it to the factory at its destination.

It is said that the engineers in charge of the San Francisco Bay Bridge have specified in their contracts that all the concrete to be used on the span will be taken from the cement plants in the state. This would mean that all the factories would be kept going at full capacity night and day for at least three years. Think what this will mean for Redwood City.

Let us be happy that the worst is over and the dawn of a new day is at hand. The gloom has passed and bright sunshine has taken the place of darkness.

It may be true that some will not have as happy a Christmas as last year, but to them it may be a consolation to know that the Savior was born in a stable in Bethlehem surrounded by poverty, and lived in privation all His life until the time of His ministry.

Cheer up all and remember that there is a destiny that shapes our end.

May the 1932 Christmas be as joyous as the preceding ones. There is every hope that it will be.

Progress Shown In Highway Work On the Penisula

Reports covering the actual construction on items in the biennial highway budget for the central coast counties were presented recently by the state division of highways to the highway committee of the central coast council, California State Chamber of Commerce, meeting at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel, San Francisco. They include the following:

San Mateo county—Route 68, Redwood City to San Mateo, surfacing, for which $315,200 is budgeted, work completed.

Broadway to Fifth avenue, paving, for which $272,450 is budgeted, work completed.

Sierra Point to South San Francisco—experimental paving, work completed.

San Mateo-Santa Clara counties—Oregon avenue to Whisman road, grading and paving, work just started.

San Francisquito creek bridge, work completed.

Stevens creek bridge, for which $65,000 is budgeted, work completed.

Redwood slough, Oregon avenue and Whisman road to Alviso road, grading and paving, work completed.

Daly City Man Is Sued for Divorce

Richard T. McHale, operator of a Daly City service station, today was sued for divorce by his wife, Mrs. Minerva McHale, to whom he was married in Salt Lake City 18 years ago. They were wedded on February 12, 1914, and separated December 2.

Mrs. McHale seeks custody of their 16-year-old son, James. McHale is charged with cruelty.

Convery and Fahey are counsel for the plaintiff.

GRASS FIRE FOUGHT

Deputy Fire Warden Ernest Werder and a crew on the county fire truck were called out at 11 o'clock this morning to extinguish a grass fire which burned over a vacant block south of the Redwood City limits between Spring street and the Bayshore highway. No damage was reported.

M. A. Harris Not Looking for Job As Co. Executive

"I wish you'd tell your readers that I'm not a candidate in any way for the office of county executive under the new charter."

Thus M. A. Harris, former mayor of Atherton and prominent peninsula business man, re-emphasized his position today in a telephone conversation with The Tribune.

Mr. Harris had been mentioned, in a story which appeared in a San Mateo paper, as among those named as possible aspirants for the county manager's job.

"A good many have joshed me about this," said Harris, "and I don't mind that. But some may take the report seriously."

FOUND DEAD IN TUB

BURLINGAME, Dec 8—Dressed in his underwear, Charles Edward Piper, 56-year-old blind man of this city, was found dead in a bath tub Monday afternoon. He was discovered drowned in the tub at his home at 1340 Bernal avenue, by Mrs. Dion Highland, who has cared for him for some time.

'Give a Can' To Help Feed City's Needy

DECEMBER means Community Cupboard month. And as the number of days until Christmas grows smaller, The Tribune's green boxes, placed throughout the business district, are collecting donations of canned and staple goods to be distributed by the local relief organization.

"Give a Can If You Can" is the slogan of this movement, and as those who can, give cans, the Christmas cheer in the homes of Redwood City's needy will increase. A committee is to make collections of the foodstuffs and turn them over to the local relief workers so that there will be no duplications.

The big green boxes are unmistakable, and they have a large capacity. So "Give a Can If You Can!"

Redwood City 25 Years Ago

Albert Mansfield, who was recently admitted to the bar, has been appointed a notary public by Governor Gillette.

H. J. Holmquist is seriously ill at his home with pneumonia.

The city of San Mateo is planning to increase its assessed valuation to more than $1,000,000 by the annexation of outlying territory with the understanding that the city will provide complete fire protection for the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hansen have sold their place at Woodside, known as Oak Hill Farm, and will reside in Palo Alto during the winter. The Hansens have lived in Woodside for more than 30 years and recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary there. They will erect a new home opposite Dalve's hotel next summer.

Samuel Christenson has completed the erection of an addition to his home on Mound street, making it one of the finest residences in Redwood City.

Jens Jensen Passes Away

Following a brief illness, Jens P. R. Jensen passed away here Tuesday at his home on Sequoia avenue. He came to this community six years ago from Racine, Wis., where he had resided for many years. He was a native of Denmark, and was 73 years of age. He was a member of Lodge No. 4, Danish Brotherhood, at Racine, Wis.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Julia Jensen; two sons and three daughters, Robert Johnson of Kenosha, Wis.; William Johnson of Racine, Wis.; Mrs. Fred Hansen of Houston, Tex.; Mrs. J. A. Pearson of San Francisco, and Mrs. Eric Erickson of this city.

State President Of Eagles Visits Local Initiation

A class of 26 new members, the largest class in several years, was initiated into Redwood City Aerie, No. 418, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last week at a meeting of the organization honoring State President Charles Zimmerman, of Long Beach.

Those initiated include: Dr. R. C. Frazier, Arthur Moritz, Edward Allen Berg, James McIntyre, Walter J. Schaylor, E. G. Hinds, J. W. Smith, Lawrence Bliss, Frank Coelho, M. Silva, U. L. Lawrence, Frank Powell, Lyman Starling, R. F. Harvey, A. J. Combe, L. E. Johnson, R. E. Eggleson, Wrex W. Cruse, Gene F. Cerqui, A. E. Hockstattler, W. J. Brook, Joseph A. Evans, M. Mancibo, John Machado, A. L. McDowell, and John Lotolien.

Officers conducting the initiation were: Paul E. Lowe, worthy president; Evans A. Fletcher, worthy vice-president; C. E. Rockhold, worthy chaplain; Herbert C. Wilder, worthy conductor; A. J. Stebenne, past president; Dennis T. McGuire, junior past president; A. J. Jensen, inside guard; and Ervin Hyldahl, outside guard.

Prominent Visitors

Besides Charles Zimmerman, state president, visiting members of the order included D. D. Heagerty of San Francisco, who is state organizer. Both officers delivered messages to the aerie. Visitors were also present from Daly City, South San Francisco, San Mateo, Burlingame, and San Jose aeries.

The second degree was not given last night due to lack of time.

Following the initiation, A. J. Stebenne, president, presided at a meeting of the San Mateo County Associated Aeries, of which organization Frank Schottler, of this city, is secretary.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Application Made For Traffic Post

Richard F. Hare, 26, navy man connected with the radio station at Point Montara, Monday filed an application with the board of supervisors to be appointed a member of the San Mateo County Traffic Squad.

E. Raymond Cato, chief of the patrol, notified the board that the names of Alvin C. Brown, C. R. Montreeville, and M. W. Winter, previously forwarded, should be held until the state calls for a new list of applicants.

Next appointments will be made from the list certified to after the civil service examinations of September 14, Cato said.

Duffy, Bose Deaths Called 'Accidental'

Verdicts of "accidental death" were returned by coroner juries today investigating the traffic mishaps which cost the lives of Eugene Duffy, 21, San Mateo Junior College student, and Raymond Bose, 14, San Francisco grocer's son.

Duffy, cousin of Sheriff James J. McGrath, was killed November 25 in a crash in the South San Francisco underpass. The Bose boy was killed November 20 when run down while helping to push a stalled automobile.

Women of Community Set Up Toy Hospital for Yule Work

Christmas is not Christmas without toys! And toys don't grow on Christmas trees unless planted there!

So a group of Redwood City women, under the leadership of Mrs. Ted Andrews are going to turn into toy doctors for the next three weeks.

Not only will these female Santa Clauses take up the glue brush, hammer, needle and thread, and paint brush, to put in order all of the almost-good toys which are to be collected for the children of the needy. They will also solve the problems of distribution. A child named "John," aged 14, will not be presented with a talking, walking, and singing baby doll, while his neighbor, named "Margie," aged two, gets a huge fire engine!

Co-operation with Miss Cora Clute, Sequoia Union High School nurse, and with Z. T. Thorning, of the unemployment relief committee, will insure this year, as it did last year, complete efficiency in the handling of the toys. There will be no duplication, and gifts will be suited to the age and sex of the children receiving them.

Collections are being made this year in garage space provided by Mrs. Andrews at 2906 Broadway, where the toys will be mended and wrapped and prepared for distribution.

Redwood City attics, basements, and playrooms probably contain many a potential sackful of toys. There's no telling what might be found in yours, or what joy it might bring to the heart of some child who otherwise would wake up to a toyless Christmas.

Let's go for the toy crusade!

Auto Hits Pole, Driver Cut in Accident Here

Stanley Kochenderser, 471 Addison avenue, Palo Alto, incurred slight cuts about the face at 3:25 o'clock Tuesday when his car struck a telephone pole at El Camino Real and Hemlock avenue. He was traveling south at the time.

After filing a report of the accident with Officers E. G. Fogarty, J. A. Snider and W. H. Thorpe, the injured motorist went to the Palo Alto Hospital for treatment.

No Protests Heard At Water Bond Meet

BELMONT, Dec. 8.—Not one protest was registered last evening at a meeting called at the Belle Monti Country Club by the Belmont county water district, to which residents of Belle Monti and Belburn Village were invited to hear talks on the proposed $45,000 water bond issue which will appear on the ballot on December 22.

Among the speakers for the evening who voiced their approval of the project were Fire Chief William Neilson, Capt. William Marston, Keene Fitzpatrick, resident of Belburn Village, L. A. Elsener, also of Belburn Village and Engineer William W. Hendricks.

Covered Wagon Pioneer Dead At San Mateo

SAN MATEO, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Harriet E. Olson, who came across the plains in a covered wagon as a girl of 6, died today at her home, 31 Grand avenue, at the age of 72. She was a native of Ohio, and first settled on the Pacific Coast with her parents in Crescent City, Ore.

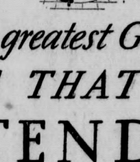
Her husband, who was a sea captain, died 40 years ago. Three daughters, Mary E. Olson of San Mateo, Mrs. Eleanor J. Meyer also of San Mateo and Mrs. Harriet Schmidt of Piedmont, survive.

Hollywood Pair Suffers Injuries In Auto Accident

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Two Hollywood men were injured early today when their car overturned on the highway near San Bruno.

Elmer Paine, 29, 1645 North Winona boulevard, Hollywood, driver, fell asleep at the wheel, police reported. The car left the road, overturning. Paine incurred a laceration of the ear. Milton Turpine, 24, same address, suffered a laceration of the face.

Both were treated at the South San Francisco Hospital and released.



The greatest Gift of all....

A FIRE THAT NEEDS

NO TENDING!

Install Gas Heating Equipment now... enjoy a Carefree Christmas

HERE is a little Christmas play.

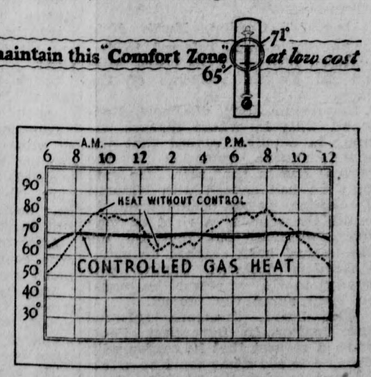
Time: Winter, 1932. Place: Any one of the more than 143,000 homes that are now heated by gas fuel. Characters: Father and Mother playing on the floor with the children and their Christmas toys. While all through the house not a person is worrying about the cold winter weather outside.

The Situation: Not a person is giving the slightest thought to the fire that is keeping this house warm. Yet in every room there is "Comfort Zone" warmth kept controlled to uniform temperature.

The Solution: There is no fuel stored in the basement, none to be carried upstairs in boxes or scuttles because the gas heating plant is steadily delivering abundant, clean, healthful heat into every room.

Why not make Christmas a day free from all care in your home? Install gas heating equipment and enjoy a fire that needs no tending. You need but pay a small amount in cash to have gas heating equipment installed. The balance may be paid on long easy terms. Telephone the P. G. and E. today or consult your local heating dealer.

Natural Gas will maintain this "Comfort Zone" at low cost



CONTROLLED HEAT

With gas fuel you can have maximum heat instantly available and keep it regulated to any temperature desired. Controlled heat from gas heating equipment is possible by merely turning a valve or handle, by pressing a button to get high, low or medium heat, or by setting an electric thermostat to automatically maintain any desired temperature.

of the existing three cent motor fuel tax is provided.

However, the amount accruing directly from the tax on the sale of gasoline shall be apportioned among the cities of the county and the unincorporated area of the county on the basis of registration of motor vehicles.

Three-fourths of the apportionment shall go to the cities and the remaining quarter resulting from city registration, together with all revenues resulting from rural registration and all receipts from license plates, etc., shall be paid into the county treasury.

The council, after considerable discussion, adopted the resolution which had been submitted by the League of California Municipalities.

To Light Cross

The city manager desired to know if the council wished to stand the cost of illuminating the big cross on Emerald Peak during the approaching holidays. The cost will be between $50 and $60. There was some disinclination to spend the money at this time, but Councilman McCarthy thought the cross should be illuminated, and so moved. The motion was seconded by Lambert, and carried.

An amendment to the recent ordinance regulating solicitations in the city, providing a penal clause, was adopted, on motion of Councilman Hildebrant, seconded by Councilman George McNulty.

Mayor Dusel said something should be done to prohibit bicycles on the streets after dark, without lights. It was decided to request the co-operation of the schools in warning children.

Work Nears On Coastline Highway Link

Within a fortnight San Mateo San Francisco and Santa Cruz counties will have completed negotiations for the purchase of the right-of-way on the Ocean Shore highway project.

Fifteen and two-tenth miles of right-of-way of the old Ocean Shore railroad will be purchased at the compromise price of $100,000, Supervisor Andrew Gallagher, of San Francisco, announces.

Work should thereafter begin with 48 hours, he said. Gallagher declared a $104,000 contract for the Pedro Mountain section has already been signed.

Peninsula Kin Mourn Passing Of Mrs. Hayes

Mrs. J. O. Hayes, wife of one of the publishers of the San Jose Mercury Herald, who is survived by Burlingame and Stanford kin, died Wednesday afternoon at San Jose.

She is said to have been the first woman foreman of a grand jury in the United States, and was a director of the Panama Pacific International Exposition.

Surviving her are her husband, J. O. Hayes, and five children, Mrs. Almon E. Roth of Stanford; Miss Lyetta Hayes, San Jose; Elystus Hayes, San Francisco; Mrs. Edgar C. Kester, Burlingame and J. Orlo Hayes, San Jose.

San Bruno Pipe Contract Is Let For Relief Work

SAN BRUNO, Dec. 8.—The city council last night awarded a contract to the United States Pipe and Foundry Co., of San Francisco, for $5372.95 worth of cast iron sewer pipe, to be used in county bond relief program. About 3000 feet of 6-inch pipe is to be bought.

The bid of the Grinnell Co. was $4,987.30, but it offered Belgian pipe, and could not deliver it for 35 days, so the contract went to the next lowest bidder. There were five other bids.

A contract also was let to the Gladding Bros. Manufacturing Co., San Jose, for $713.44 worth of vitrified sewer pipe.

$20,000 Paid in, S. M. Man Asks Cut in Alimony

SAN MATEO, Dec. 3.—Henry Levy, wool and sheep dealer, of this city, today sought a reduction in the San Francisco superior court of his alimony payments to his divorced wife, Mrs. Rose Alice Adler, saying he has paid $20,000 to her during the past seven years.

Mrs. Adler, who is opposing the motion, said she had received $15,000 cash at the time of her divorce in 1926 and $250 a month, which had been paid up to last May. In the divorce her former name was restored. Levy wants the amount reduced to $100 a month. The matter was continued until Monday.

Menlo Park

Although there is an abundance of red berries in this community, robins have not made their appearance. Even the rains of last week did not lure them from the far north. The old-timer looks upon this as an omen for a dry winter.

Charles McPherson has a nucleus for a goat farm, having three at his home at Atherton. He expects to add to the herd so that he may be able to sell milk to many customers.

Attorney James Davis has his invention at the Mutual Engineering Company works at South San Francisco for the final touches. This machine is flexible, small and with a big volume to do vast work in crushing ore in mines. Mr. Davis says the invention will revolutionize the mining business especially properties in the distant mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Newcomb of San Jose (Margaret Van Buskirk of Menlo Park) gave a dinner dance Saturday evening at the Hotel Sainte Claire in honor of the latter's sister, Miss Mary Smith. Guests were Miss Florence McCormick, Miss May Leona Anderson, Miss Peggy Buckley, John Preston, James Brainerd, Robert Girvin, Robert McKellip, and Boynton Tickner.

Edward Spieler, for the past two years a baker at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, will open the Menlo Pastry Shop in the quarters formerly occupied by Mr. Hornbuckle, now conducting a bakery at Redwood City.

The Menlo Grocery has leased the Duff and Doyle building, recently vacated by W. E. Dale. Mr. McCarthy, owner of the grocery, is making many improvements on the building. He will shortly move from the Larrecou building, where he had been located since the camp days.

The San Francisco College for Women will close today for the Christmas vacation and will resume studies on January 3 in the new college on Lone Mountain, where new buildings have been erected. The students attending the institution from Menlo Park are Miss Carmel O'Keefe, Miss Emily McCarthy, and Miss Helene Smith.

Mrs. Catherine Heuer, nee Doyle, who passed away in San Francisco last Saturday, was well known in Menlo Park when she was a reigning belle in Mountain View, where her girlhood was spent. She is pleasantly recorded in the annals of Menlo's past. Many old timers will remember the beautiful girl that attended the dances and parties here over a quarter of a century ago. She was a great favorite with the young folks of that day. Numerous swains paid homage to the slender, golden haired beauty from the little city nestling near the hills.

At the stated meeting of Menlo Park Lodge, No. 651, F. & A. M., held on Friday, December 2, the following officers were elected to serve for the year 1933: Worshipful master, Reginald Milward; senior warden, Gerald J. Owens; junior warden, Clyde A. Howard; treasurer, Charles W. Palmer; secretary, Dr. J. Ross Hardy. These officers, with others to be appointed, will be installed on Friday, December 16, 1932, in the Masonic Hall, in Menlo Park.

A peninsula group assembled recently at the dinner which Mrs. James Flood gave at her San Francisco home, honoring her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stebbins. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lapham, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Phleger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roy MacGregor, and Mr. and Mrs. James Moffitt.

Menlo Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, at its meeting last week voted to keep the same officers for the ensuing term. These officers have been especially efficient and under their regime the parlor had a very successful year.

On Thursday evening, Menlo Native Sons and Daughters will have a dinner to be followed with dancing in Masonic Hall. This is a yearly event and is looked forward to by both parlors.

A Christmas party for the Natives and their children will be held just before Christmas.

A committee from the Native Sons and Daughters will be represented at the meetings to plan Christmas baskets.

Mrs. Bessie Schivo, who was operated upon for appendicitis two weeks ago, has returned to her pretty home on Oak Grove avenue. She enjoys a wide circle of friends in the community, who will be pleased to learn of her recovery.

Mrs. Cora Parker has returned to her winter home at Carmel. Mrs. Parker contemplates remaining several weeks at her cosy dwelling by the sea.

Mrs. Harry Croombs is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Frank Welch, on Chestnut street. Mrs. Croombs is a prominent resident of San Francisco.

Mrs. Carl Lindquist is making a Red Cross drive in Menlo Park and is meeting with success. Mrs. Lindquist is an earnest worker. She always makes a success of all her undertakings. She has many friends in the community.

Last evening the Menlo Park Relief committee held a meeting at which were present representatives of the Native Sons, Native Daughters, American Legion and auxiliary, National Council of Catholic Women, St. Joseph's Mothers' Club, Guild of Trinity Church, Parent-Teacher Association, Red Cross, and Masons. Plans were formed for filling baskets for the needy for Christmas. Several plans for raising funds to purchase supplies for the baskets were also made. Mr. Leach was elected chairman and Mr. Hook, secretary-treasurer. Meetings will be held weekly in Legion Hall. Barrels will be placed in all stores in Menlo Park, where food can be deposited.

FORMER SCHOOLMATE VISITS MRS. GRAY

Mrs. J. M. Rutherford, of Santa Barbara, recently came to Redwood City to spend a few days with Mrs. L. P. Gray, of Hudson street, but due to the latter's illness could remain only a few hours. Mrs. Rutherford, who was Miss Constance Dunn, was a schoolmate of Mrs. Gray's when both were in Oakland.

MISS HOUGHAM HONOR GUEST AT S. F. PARTY

Miss Marge Hougham, bride-elect of Carlos Caruso, was the guest of honor Tuesday at another charming shower which was attended by many local people. Both Miss Hougham and Mr. Caruso are residents of San Carlos.

Hostess Tuesday was Mrs. Paris Morosi, who was formerly Miss Palma Caruso of Redwood City. She is sister to the bridegroom-elect.

Dainty wedding bells hung from the chandelier in the Morosi home on Taylor street in San Francisco, and on the table were miniature church steps upon which stood the bridal party, including tiny flower girls. The color scheme was pink, white and green.

Enjoying the affair were the following from Redwood City: Mesdames Victor Chiappellone, Katie Ferraro, Palma Demma, A. Caruso, and E. R. Rice; Misses Audrey Brooks and Daisy Chiappellone. Miss Louise Borghini, of Menlo Park, was also present as well as a large number of friends from Burlingame, San Mateo and San Francisco.

Hostess with Mrs. Morosi was Mrs. Zella Wood, also of San Francisco.

The wedding will take place Sunday.

Book Review Is Heard By Hadassah

More than 80 members and guests heard Rabbi J. Aaron Levy review Maurice Samuel's recent book, "Jews on Approval," at the regular luncheon meeting of the Palo Alto branch of Hadassah held Monday at the Palo Alto Community house.

Also on the program were a group of Russian songs rendered by Mrs. W. L. Emery, of Palo Alto, and a report on current events by Mrs. Henry Newberg. Mrs. L. Rothenberg, president of Oakland chapter, and Mrs. A. Richardson, president of the San Jose group, were also present and addressed the meeting.

Rabbi Levy was accompanied by Mrs. Levy.

Auxiliary of Printers' Group Gives Party

A Christmas tree, with gifts for all, dancing and cards were enjoyed by members of the San Mateo County Typographical Union auxiliary at the Christmas party given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Hinrichs, in Palo Alto.

Four new members were taken into the group at the meeting. They are Mrs. Ellen Warner of San Mateo, Mrs. Hazel Sarcander of Burlingame and Mrs. Ynez Anley and Mrs. Billy Somerville of San Francisco.

The next meeting of the organization will be held in Daly City at the home of Mrs. Louise Canine on January 3.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED OVER WEEK-END

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo A. Robinson of Menlo Park were Mrs. Helen Arnold and her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Poston, both from La Crescenta.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL JOINS RED CROSS

All members of the faculty at Washington school on Woodside road have joined the American Red Cross during the recent roll call, it was announced today.

Baptist Church To Have Visiting Speakers Sunday

Dr. John W. Bailey, of the Berkeley School of Divinity, will give the anniversary address at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, when members of the congregation join to celebrate their second year in the new church building at Hudson street and James avenue. Dr. Bailey gave the dedicatory address at the opening ceremonies two years ago.

At the evening services, Dr. O. M. Johnston, of Stanford University, will be the speaker. Dr. Johnston, who has just been retired from the active faculty of the university, was head of the romanic language department for many years. He is the author of several text books and is at present engaged in writing at his home on the Stanford campus.

Presiding in the pulpit will be the Rev. Charles H. Gatchell, minister, and special musical selections are being planned for both services.

Members of the Men's Bible council will be present at the services in a body.

NOON WEDDING IN MENLO PARK UNITES COUPLE

The Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park was the setting for the wedding at noon Saturday of Miss Noeline Huss, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huss of Palo Alto, and Frank Preisinger, also a resident of that community. Father Thomas J. Kennedy, pastor of the church, officiated in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a brown traveling ensemble with a corsage of orchids. After the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at the Huss home, 1902 University avenue, where Mr. and Mrs. Preisinger will reside on their return from a motor trip to Southern California.

Among those present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. John Huss, Mr. and Mrs. John Huss Jr., of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barnby, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gullikson, Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Studley, Miss Victoria King, Miss Nettie Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Palmer and Harvey Reynolds.

The bride's other brother, Pierre Huss, was unable to be present. He is staff correspondent for the International News Service with headquarters in London, England. Mr. Preisinger's parents live in Minnesota.

❖ Woodside ❖

The Woodside Gardeners' Association met in regular session on Monday evening at the school auditorium. After the routine business of the evening was completed, the officers for the ensuing year were installed, a vote of thanks was tendered to J. L. Hughes, the retiring president and his associate officers for so successfully guiding the destinies of the organization through the first year of its existance and Walter Prehn, the new president, outlined plans for the coming year. The members then sat down to a bountiful feast provided by the social committee and talked over their common garden problems until a late hour.

Mrs. J. V. Neuman and Mrs. J. D. Gish of the Woodside Girl Scout organization, attended the Sequoia Chapter Council at the home of Mrs. Werthman on Santa Cruz avenue in Menlo Park on Wednesday afternoon.

The retirement of Herman Wobber as manager of the Paramount Picture Company as noted in our last issue does not mean his retirement from the picture industry, for he has already become connected with the Fox Films.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Jackling, who have usually returned to their home at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco for the winter, are this year remaining at their home here for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Swinnerton returned on Monday from a visit to Los Angeles.

George Whittell, who was injured a short time ago by a recently imported Arabian stallion, is recovering at his home on Kings Mountain road.

The many friends of William Byrne are gratified to see that he is able to be about again after an influenza attack.

Attorney Samuel Samter of San Francisco spent the week-end at his cottage in Woodside Glens.

Woodside's population has been increased by one. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stroh on Tuesday.

The Brownie group of the Woodside Girl Scouts will give a Christmas party on the 19th to their mothers and the members of the scout committee.

The Woodside Sunday School will give its Christmas party on the 28th at the church. Miss May Huddart, the superintendent of the Sunday School, will have charge of the program.

SOCIETY—CLUBS

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Honoring Miss Marge Hougham, who will marry Carlos A. Caruso on December 11, Mrs. W. G. Pedersen, of Burlingame, gave a surprise shower last Tuesday evening at the Devonshire Country Club.

Guests at the affair included: Mesdames Andrew H. Lawler, of Redwood City, B. B. Hawks of San Mateo, Carl Harr and Clifford Marks of Burlingame and Alfred Smith and Ralph Smith of San Francisco, and Miss Irene Williams, of Burlingame.

Bridge was played and a midnight supper served.

Gergens Entertain Friends at Club

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gergen, of number one Duane street, were host and hostess Saturday evening to a group of friends at the Los Altos Country Club. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Winklebleck, of Redwood City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Schroeder, formerly of this city, and now of San Mateo.

Dinner was followed by bridge and dancing.

Mr. Washburn has recently taken over the managership of Montgomery Ward & Company here.

Child Welfare Fund to Benefit From Card Party

With proceeds going to the child welfare fund, members of the Redwood City Woman's Club will give their annual benefit card party Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse on Clinton street.

Auction bridge and whist will be played until 10 o'clock or longer, and after that hour there will be dancing. Score cards are priced at 35 cents, and reservations may be secured through Mrs. E. L. Kilbourne, Redwood 643, president of the club.

Exchange Club Hears Hallinan

T. J. Hallinan outlined the plans and the work of the food relief committee of the Redwood City Unemployed Relief committee Tuesday at a meeting of the Exchange club in the Sequoia hotel. Chairman of the meeting was John McCarthy.

Officers for 1933 will be elected at next week's closed meeting, it was announced last night.

Preparing for Wm. Penn Play

Preparations for the play which is to be presented in competition with other tribes was the chief business at Monday's meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sioux Friendly Indian Tribe, of the Lincoln school. Details of the play, which is to be based on William Penn's dealings with the Indians, are being worked out by James Argo and Bob Sneed. Indiancraft work is also being done to add to the setting of the play.

Herbert Clattenburg Jr., fulfilled the initial requirements and was awarded the "buck" button.

High Y's Hear Kane

Tom Kane, manager of the Sequoia theatre, was the speaker at the Junior-Senior Hi-Y club at its meeting on Friday noon. He told the boys of the many interesting things which the public detects in the movies which "get by" even the critical eyes of the men who are continually on the lookout for things which do not fit into the scheme of things.

Daughter Born to Woodside Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stroh of Woodside, became the parents of a daughter, Beverly Virginia, at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The child, who was born in Mills Memorial Hospital, is the first in the family. Both mother and infant are doing nicely.

Mr. Stroh has been for two years, superintendent of the Gilman Ayrshire Farm.

"Alice: Come home. All is FORGIVEN"

Few advertisements in your newspaper start that way. Yet most of them are just as personal, and almost as promising.

Manufacturers and merchants must know your needs and wants, or go out of business. They must know, for instance, that about the first of next month you'll be very much interested in a new hat, or a new lamp, or new towels. They must foresee your wishes—and have what you'll want when you want it.

And they do—constantly striving to suit, at the lowest possible prices. Then telling you in advertising of the gifts they have brought from the far corners of the earth, to please Your Royal Highness.

Read the advertisements in this paper. They are addressed to you—personally. They bring you news of better things to have and easier ways to live. Intimate news, of immediate interest.

RALLY NETS 27-25 WIN, ROUTS JINX

By EL THOMAS

By the margin of two spectacular field goals rung up in the last minute of play by Johnny Weir and Jack Sheehan, the Redwood City Eagles are still undefeated at the top of the Peninsula Basketball League today after turning the tide on the South San Francisco "jinx" team 27 to 25 in a thrilling contest in the Sequoia gymnasium Wednesday.

Sequoia's championship 110-pound team was in its best form of the season in defeating the Japanese All-Stars, 21 to 10, in the preliminary.

Outclassed in shooting from the very start and trailing all the way, the Eagles appeared to be doomed to the same fate which cost them the championship last year as Manager D. W. Ratto's boys from South San Francisco looped field goals from all angles of the court in a manner that indicated a repetition of their 1931 victory.

Eagles Trail Throughout

The visitors were off to a brilliant start with six points in less than two minutes on tricky shots by Fischer, center, and Bracco, forward, and they kept up the same pace in spite of a brief Eagle rally to lead at half time, 14 to 13.

This lead was increased to seven points in the third period before Gordon McLachlan dropped in a long shot to start the Eagles on their way. Tom Shine added another arching goal, and then Weir and Sheehan began to function—the former on long ones and the latter on excellent rebound play.

The score was tied at 23-23 when Eschelbach potted two of the nine free throws made by his team out of 10 chances, and a victory at 25-23 seemed certain. Suddenly Weir came to an abrupt halt on a fast dribble and arched the ball through the ring to make it 25-25.

Sheehan's Goal Wins

Twenty-five seconds to play and the visitors in possession of the ball! Weir took it away single-handed but was heavily guarded and passed out to Sheehan. In an unconcerned manner Sheehan flipped the ball with one hand in an apparently futile attempt to beat the gun, and it swished straight through the net for a two-point victory.

The crucial win put the Eagles over the danger mark in the title race of the first half, but there are yet St. Joseph's Alumni and Campbell to face in two home games before the half is finished.

Referee "Red" Schaylor missed few of the many fouls, in which the Eagles were chief offenders.

New Prep Rule To Limit Age Of Athletes

Revision of classification rules for Peninsula Athletic league high school players in keeping with the north coast section of the California Interscholastic Federation changes, has been effected by the peninsula league board of managers following a meeting at Burlingame high school Monday.

Most important of the matters considered was the question of adoption of the new ruling passed by the north coast section to limit the age, weight, and height maximum for the classification of lightweight athletes. It was decided to put the new plan into force at the start of the next school year so that the only sport to be affected this year will be the lightweight swimming in the N. C. S. as no other lightweight sports are played as far as sectional competition.

Under this new plan, which will be in effect for the school year 1933-34, no one may compete in class B 130 sports who is over 18, is more than 70 inches tall, or weighs over 140 pounds even though the total of his exponents under the three-point classification system may not exceed 130. At present the limits are 21 years of age; 72 inches tall; 159 pounds in weight.

Following the section ruling, the P. A. L. will reinstate the discus throw in the annual track and field meet but the javelin will remain in exile. A long discussion on matters of eligibility of athletes was held with an agreement toward strict interpretation of all regulations. It was recommended to the basketball coaches that three officials be selected to work all of the P. A. L. cage games and for these three referees to rotate each Friday among the various loop members.

During the South African War, Britain lost 5800 men and 22,800 wounded. Last year 6700 were killed and 202,000 injured on her highways.

Who'll Get Warner's Job?

Now that Glenn S. ("Pop") Warner has resigned as head football coach at Stanford, there is much speculation as to who will succeed the "Old Fox." Warner is shown above with Ernie Nevers, one of Warner's all-Americans, who is being bruited for the job. Below are Andy Kerr (left), a Warner disciple, and "Tiny" Thornhill, Stanford line coach, also mentioned for the job.

Cagemen Play Santa Rosans Here Friday

Two squads of Sequoia high school heavyweight basketball players are preparing for their opening home engagements of the current season here this evening and for another doubleheader the following evening with Sacramento high school at the capital.

After two weeks of practice, Coach Ray Dimick yesterday ordered a second cut in his varsity squad, leaving 16 candidates out of the original 30, and reduced the 130-pound squad to 24 prior to another cut later this week.

Although lacking in reserve strength, the Sequoia unlimited quintet is showing early-season promise and will be a fast-breaking combination. The team is not up to the usual weight standards of the Peninsula Athletic League unlimited division but development of speed is expected to put the Cherokees on a par with their heavier opponents.

Art Blasdel, veteran forward, returned to the squad Tuesday after missing the opening game at Mountain View Friday.

There is considerable competition in practice this week for positions on the travelling squads that will make the trip to Sacramento Saturday night. Coach Dimick has announced that eight players from each team will be selected, and this has been a stimulus to practice.

Another item on the preliminary schedule which is already attracting attention is the varsity tournament for high school teams which will be staged at Monterey December 28-30. All of the competing teams will be quartered at Monterey for three days while the tourney is in progress.

Scout Troop at Belmont Formed By Ten Youths

BELMONT, Dec. 7.—Completion of two months of organization work for the new Belmont troop of Boy Scouts by Scoutmaster Frank Lilly is marked today in the registration of the troop at the district headquarters in Redwood City.

Ten boys make up the charter membership of the troop, and already four others have applied for admission.

Charter members include Jay Levitt, Robert Manning, Robert Lilly, Ray Hill, B. Whipple, Lester Whipple, Robin Whipple, Jerome Levitt, Stanley Schoof and Carl Schoof.

Charles Irvin, formerly of troop 153, San Carlos, has taken over the assistant scoutmastership.

C. G. Schoof assumes chairmanship of the Belmont citizens' committee sponsoring the troop.

Meetings will be held Monday evenings from 7:15 to 9 in the Belmont Legion hall.

Addition of the Belmont recruits brings the total membership in the Redwood City district to 212 scouts, a nincrease of 59 per cent over February, 1932, according to Scout Executive Christy T. Allen.

Sheep growers of 50 Tennessee counties disposed of their wool through a pool this year.

San Mateo J. C. Awarded Grid Championship

SAN MATEO, Dec. 8.—Coach Murius McFadden was notified this morning in a telegram from H. L. Hoch, commissioner of the Northern California Junior College Conference, that the San Mateo Junior College football team had been awarded the 1932 championship over Sacramento.

San Mateo won four victories to Sacramento's three, the latter including a forfeit, but the two teams were technically tied for first place on a percentage basis after playing a 12-12 contest at Sacramento Thanksgiving Day.

First Manager Of Stanford's Football Dies

Rae E. Maynard, 62, first football manager at Stanford University, member of the track team, and a member of the second graduating class, is dead today of a heart attack.

Maynard was found in bed in Los Angeles Tuesday at the California Club, where he had lived for the past 15 years. Until eight months ago he was vice-president of the General Petroleum Corporation.

South African railways are making a bid for the patronage of automobile tourists by offering special rates for the transportation of cars to vacation headquarters and return free of charge.

SEQUOIA IN FIRST HOME CAGE GAMES

Coach Ray Dimick's Sequoia varsity and 130-pound basketball teams will open their schedule of home games in the Sequoia gymnasium here tonight at 7:30 o'clock against two invading quintets from Santa Rosa high school.

Although defeated 16 to 14 by a heavy Mountain View team in their initial practice game a week ago, the Cherokee unlimited cagers are developing gradually and have shown prospects of a fast and high scoring combination.

Art Blasdel is back on the job after being ill and will hold down one of the forward berths which he filled as a regular last season. The other regular held over from 1931 is Jimmy McGuire, who also is slated to start at forward.

Elbert Garcia, substitute center last year, has been promoted to the first string pivot berth, while Harold Kniveton of the varsity and George Howland of the 130s have won starting guard positions for the Santa Rosa game.

"Frenchy" Pommes at running guard completes the regular lineup of the Sequoia 130s, although they won without him last week. Norm Bollum at forward is a new player whose work bears watching, and matched with him is Marcopolus. Ward Baughn, veteran center, and Fakhouri at guard are the other starters.

Friday's Sequoia lineups:

VARSITY		130s
Blasdel	f	Marcopolus
McGuire	f	Bollum
Garcia	c	Baughn
Howland	g	Pommes

Sequoia High Debaters Win Over S. Cruz

Upholding their contention that interscholastic athletics should be abolished, affirmative speakers of Sequoia Union High School on Wednesday won a peninsula league debate with Santa Cruz high school's forensic team in the Sequoia auditorium.

Alice Swift and Billy Dusel of Sequoia won the decision of Abe Mellinkoff, Stanford University Phi Beta Kappa student, the lone judge of the debate, for their presentation of affirmative arguments on the question, "Resolved, That interscholastic athletics should be abolished."

Santa Cruz speakers were Henry Lovejoy and Raymond Laverty. Wilbur Woodhams of Sequoia presided.

Following the debate, members of both teams and Harvey Hall, Sequoia coach, joined at luncheon in the Sequoia clubrooms.

Flatheads Win Prep Interperiod Title

Two long runs to touchdowns by Tony Bojo gave Capt. George Frykman's sixth-period Flathead football team a 13 to 0 victory over the first-period Piutes for the advanced interperiod grid championship of Sequoia high school Tuesday afternoon.

KENNELS PROTESTED

SAN MATEO, Dec. 7.—Complaints have been lodged with Chief of Police Thomas Burke here, by E. F. Hall and James A. Svojtek, residents of Beresford Park district, who demand the arrest of George Schroth on violation of the city license ordinance. Schroth operates dog kennels without a permit, they contend. Burke declares he will make arrest if he finds any violation is being committed.

"I'm Through With Being Depressed!"

"For the past three years I have lived a horrible life. There has been nothing the matter with me except that I have been scared stiff. After three years of fright, during which none of the things I was afraid of happened, it is high time I changed and began to live like a normal human being once more.

"My salary was cut, yes, but it really wasn't very serious, and I can certainly still live pretty well, and a lot better than I have been living lately.

"I propose to start living here and now—today!

"In my closet there are two business suits. One is too badly worn for any man in my position to wear at all. It will go to some one who really needs it. The other I can wear when I do odd jobs around the house. I'm going to buy two new suits, and wear them on alternate days, for that's the way to get the best wear out of them. I'm going to buy an overcoat and a hat too.

"My shirts have fringes on the cuffs. My underwear is patched, and my darned socks are ugly and uncomfortable. My shoes have been half-soled, and the uppers are cracked. I am buying an entire new outfit, and my old things are going where they will do some real good. I'm going to stop being ashamed of my appearance.

"My wife needs dresses, underwear, shoes, hats, gloves. I've given her the cash to buy them with. 'Get everything you need,' I told her, 'nothing more and nothing less!'

"The living-room rug is a sight. Out it goes, and in comes a new one. The sofa needs repair and recovering. It's going to be done. We need new curtains, new napkins, new towels, even new sheets. Did you ever sleep on patched sheets? Never again!

"My old automobile has 56,000 miles on it, and the best you can say for it is it still runs. The paint is dull and chipped, the nickel is rusty, the upholstery stained and worn threadbare, and there are enough rattles and squeaks to amuse all the babies from now to kingdom come. Every few hundred miles some annoying little repair costs me from 50 cents to $5. It nearly burnt up one night because the insulation had worn off a wire, causing a short circuit. I'm going to buy a new car because I need it and want it and because I can afford it.

"My old radio still works, but I know that during the past three years there have been big improvements. The new radios sound a lot better, area easier to work, and they give you more stations. There's a new radio coming to our house.

"I'm going to buy the books I have been wanting to read. I'm going to see the shows I want to see. I'm going to buy everything I need and can really afford.

"And I'm going to contribute generously to the unemployed, because, like most Americans, I want to help people in distress.

"It all comes down to this—I am going to live the kind of life I am entitled to lead. In living that life I am aiding others, directly and indirectly, to live their own lives by helping to provide them with the money and work they need.

"I'm through with being depressed in body and soul. From now on, see my smile and Watch My Dust!"

NOTICE OF TRUSTEES SALE

Whereas, Aaron Caunter and Maggie Mae Caunter, (husband and wife), of the county of San Mateo, State of California, did execute a certain deed of trust bearing date the first day of July, 1926, to Walter Knight, as trustee, for the benefit and security of Annie E. Soderquist and Martin Seibert, which deed of trust was recorded in the office of the County Recorder of the County of San Mateo, State of California, on the 16th day of July, 1926, in Volume 245 of Official Records at page 196.

And whereas, the said Martin Seibert died on the 12th day of May, 1927, and Elizabeth Seibert then became the sole surviving heir under said deed of trust;

And whereas, default has been made by the said Aaron Caunter and Maggie Mae Caunter, in the payment of the promissory notes secured by said deed of trust, and the beneficiaries demand that the said trustee, Walter Knight, should forthwith proceed to sell the lands in said deed of trust described;

Now, therefore, pursuant to said demand and in accordance with the terms and under the authority of the said deed of trust, the said Walter Knight, as such trustee, does hereby give notice that on Tuesday, January 3, 1933, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the County Court House in Redwood City, San Mateo County, California, he will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, all that certain tract and lot of land situate, lying and being in the County of San Mateo, State of California, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Japan's Manchurian Course Defended By Former P. A. Man

Japan's attitude to the Manchurian problem was presented before the Foreign Policy Association of Columbus, O., in a recent debate on the question by Dr. Paul H. Clyde, professor of history at the University of Kentucky and formerly a resident of Palo Alto. The other speaker was Prof. George H. Blakeslee of Clark University, legal adviser to Major General McCoy of the Lytton commission.

Professor Clyde, a specialist in Manchurian history and international relations, recalled briefly the course of events since the fall of 1931 when the Japanese Army entered Manchuria, culminating with the Lytton report which is now before the League of Nations.

Disclaiming any intention of suggesting what the League of Nations should do about the problem, Professor Clyde remarked: "But I do say emphatically that unless the League of Nations and the United States face frankly and honestly questions that are completely avoided by the commission, or which it felt did not properly belong to its functions, the Lytton report, in so far as the future peace of the world is concerned, will have little if any value.

"The first of these considerations is the failure of nations like individuals to say what they mean. All the major states have renounced war as an instrument of national policy. When they made that declaration, did they mean it? The evidence is not encouraging. War budgets have not diminished. If you will examine in detail the proposals for naval disarmament which have been put forward by the great powers, beginning with the Washington Conference in 1921, you will be struck by this fact: Each plan, stripped of humbug, divested of its cloak of idealism, is designed to weaken the possible rivals of the power presenting it. The significance of that situation is this. The attitude of the powers on naval disarmament is not in harmony with the declarations contained in the Kellogg-Briand Pact. It means, if we can know what anything means, that the powers have never given more than lip service to that declaration. In this respect, Great Britain, France and the United States (Mr. Stimson to the contrary) stand side by side with Japan. This is a fundamental point. x x x In a word, Japan has been saying, you nations have never taken your pledges seriously (your whole armament policy and ours is proof of that fact) and if you today were located as we are located, you would act just as we have acted."

Professor Clyde then declared that the factor of security will determine "what sort of action constitutes legitimate self-defense" He discussed the Japan situation from the standpoint of domestic problems; pressure of population, food supply, land; problems of industrialization; its relationship with Soviet Russia; Japanese-American relations; and her position with respect to China.

"Barring miracles," capitalistic Japan will some day face communistic Russia, and the battleground will be Manchuria, said Dr. Clyde.

Japanese-American relations were happy from 1854 to 1905, but complications have arisen to mar that condition, the historian said. It was the United States "more than any other power" that deprived Japan of her British ally. The exclusion act also rankles, he added.

The history of the relations of force imposed on China by foreign powers dates back to 1842 when Great Britain gained a foothold by the Treaty of Nanking, Professor Clyde recalled. Other powers followed suit. Japan imitated its European rivals. Out of the revolution of 1911, he continued, grew the ideas which form the basis of the foreign policy of modern China. In putting these ideas of anti-foreignism, and so forth, into effect China has collided on several occasions with Great Britain in 1925 and 1927, with Russia in 1929, and with Japan in 1931 and 1932, he stated.

"The major distinction that is to be drawn between Japan's present policy and that pursued by England, the United States and Russia is that Japan has discarded half-way measures," said Professor Clyde, who dealt also with the contentions of Japan with respect to China.

In conclusion Dr. Clyde declared that "Japan knows full well that American idealism in the Manchurian crisis is based on American security. Conversely, whether it be right or wrong, no great nation, not even Japan, can be expected to evolve a policy of pacific idealism on the basis of insecurity."

Buck Reverses Jury Verdict In Leahy Will

finding that there was no proof of undue influence, Superior Judge George H. Buck Saturday set aside a jury's verdict which declared null and void the will of Miss Ella A. Leahy, 62, who died here August 1.

The court sustained the document written by Miss Leahy on her deathbed, June 24, by which she favored one sister over another. The same will, by a vote of 10 to 2, was nullified by vote of the jury here in Judge Buck's court last week.

Judge Buck did not find that Miss Leahy was under the undue influence of her nephew, Harry M. Cornyn, 918 Durlston road, this city, as the jury had. Cornyn, the jury found, influenced his aunt in favor of his mother, Mrs. Mary L. Cornyn, of this city.

Mrs. Anna L. Dixon of San Francisco, a sister of both Miss Leahy and Mrs. Cornyn, was the contestant. She probably will appeal the court's decision.

CITY ACQUIRES DEEDS

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7—Deeds for the extension of Randolph avenue, which will connect with Hillside boulevard and offer a new outlet to Colma from South San Francisco were purchased today by the latter city. Ratification of the purchase was made by the South San Francisco city council.

Auto Driving On Sidewalks Not Profitable

SAN BRUNO, Dec. 6.—Drivers of those midget automobiles which can dart through traffic openings too small for the average car usually escape difficulties with the law, but here's one who didn't.

A. M. Sowell, 45, of 364 Cypress avenue, arrested December 2 for reckless driving after running his bantam auto on the sidewalk, today was found guilty by Judge R. A. Rapsey and was given a two-day sentence in the county jail, suspended for six months.

Jack Keiser, contractor, complained that Sowell in circulating through pedestrian traffic barely missed a baby buggy.

Koff Is Sued By 94 Buyers Of 'Free Lots'

Sol Koff, former San Carlos realty developer now serving a term in San Quentin, was named defendant in Oakland today in a suit for $59,444 filed by 94 victims of his asserted "free lot racket."

Herman Yaffe and Herman Weiss, his two aides, who also are in prison, are named with Koff as defendants.

Koff, Yaffe and Weiss were found guilty of grand theft and conspiracy four months ago, and entered San Quentin prison for one to 10 years each last August.

Son's Marriage Being Annulled By Father Here

Having wedded without his parents' consent, Frank Molarius Jr., 19, will be separated from his wife, the former Ada Bothwell, if annulment proceedings filed today are successful.

The youth's father, Frank Molarius Sr., filed the annulment complaint with County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman here.

The young couple was wedded in Reno on July 15, last. Gilbert D. Ferrell and Fred Comba are counsel for the elder Molarius.

S. F. Physician Dies in Villa At Beresford

Ending a quarter of a century of practice in San Francisco, Dr. Charles Edward Schwartz, 54, died Tuesday at his villa in Beresford.

A native of England, Dr. Schwartz came to this country when a young man. He was a graduate of the University of California, and during the World war held a commission as a captain in the Army Medical corps.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral Thursday, December 8, at 1 o'clock p. m., from the mortuary of the Peter E. McLaughlin Co., 435 Duboce avenue, San Francisco. Inurment will be at Woodlawn cemetery. The funeral is under auspices of Argonne Lodge No. 514, F. and A. M.

He was the husband of Amanda Schwartz, father of Marion Schwartz, stepfather of Caroline May, son of Mrs. Anna Schwartz, and brother of Aaron Schwartz.

S. J. Port Asks Gov't to Pay For Dredging

Taking a position similar to that already proposed in Redwood City, the San Jose Deep Water Port Association has asked the federal government to pay all costs of dredging the projected San Jose deep water port channel.

A letter with this request has been mailed by Wilbur F. Henning, president of the port organization, to Washington.

The chief of engineers and the secretary of war already recommended that the San Jose port project be allowed $260,000—to be matched by a similar amount by local interests—contingent upon local interests providing at their own expense for a belt railroad to the harbor and for wharfage facilities to accommodate a minimum of 400,000 tons of shipping.

Stockton Cited

The letter presents arguments for more federal money as follows:

First—The cost to local interests would be approximately $1,750,000 compared to only $260,000 for the government. The government in some other cases — notably the Stockton port project, where the dredging is a larger part of the port development—has assumed a much larger portion of the total port cost.

Second—The proposed port would be only two miles from the navy's air station and the channel would be of great value in national defense.

Third—Although the need for the port is great, the floating of a large local bond issue at this time is doubtful.

Fourth — Creation of the port would not be the granting of a new favor to San Jose, but merely the restoration of leadership in water transportation that city once enjoyed.

It was therefore suggested, in view of these arguments, that the board of engineers for rivers review its study of the port project and recommend that congress appropriate another $260,000 to pay for the second half of the dredging, filing this recommendation in time for inclusion in the next rivers and harbors bill, whether such bill is passed by the present short session of congress or at a later date.

Amendment Up

B. C. Allin, director of the port of Stockton, has urged Redwood City to support a proposed amendment to the shipping act which is to be introduced by Sen. Hiram W. Johnson this month.

The amendment provides that "it shall be unlawful for any common carrier by water, either directly or indirectly through the medium of any agreement, conference, association or understanding, or otherwise, to attempt to or to prevent any common carrier by water from extending direct service to a publicly owned and operated terminal located on an improvement project authorized by the congress and charging for such service the same rates which it charges at its nearest port of call."

The matter was discussed here at the last meeting of the chamber of commerce directors, who referred it to the harbor committee.

Excess Weight On Truck Costs Man $50 Fine

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—William Freitas, San Jose, today was fined $50 by Judge Edward Farrell for operating an overloaded truck.

His truck, laden with granite, was 10,650 pounds overweight.

Judge Farrell added 10 more names to the list of drivers who have failed to answer traffic citations in his court.

Contractor Passes At San Mateo Home

SAN MATEO, Dec. 5.—William Kenny, 79, retired San Francisco contractor, died Sunday at his home here following a brief illness.

Long prominent in the Masonic order, Kenny built the Richmond Masonic Temple and other Masonic structures here. He leaves his widow and a daughter.

Services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the chapel at 23 California drive, Burlingame, under the auspices of the Richmond Masonic lodge.

WINS DIVORCE DECREE

Mrs. Madeline J. Talcott, 1145 Palm drive, Burlingame, today won an interlocutory decree of divorce from Frank J. Talcott, on the ground of cruelty. The decree was awarded by Superior Judge Franklin Swart.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

'Shannons' Raises $250 for Bread

With the proceeds of approximately $250 from "Shannons of Broadway," produced Friday and Saturday nights at the Sequoia Union High School auditorium, nearly 6,250 loaves of bread will be distributed among the needy families of the community, according to Donald Kauffman, who was in charge of ticket sales at Sequoia.

Nearly 300 tickets were sold at Sequoia, while about 564 were sold outside, exclusive of door sales, according to Amerigo Rossi, local banker, in charge of finances.

Local bakers, using flour donated by the American Red Cross, have offered to furnish all other ingredients and to bake the bread for four cents a loaf.

Service clubs in Redwood City took out several blocks of tickets and sold them to all their members.

Sequoia Fives Tilt Santa Rosa

Opening their practice basketball seasons, the varsity and 130-pound cagers divided their games with the Mountain View cagers at Mountain View December 2.

The 130's won their tilt, 16-14, while a last-minute rally by the Mountaineers gave them a victory over the Cherokee heavyweights, 19-7.

This was the teams' first game, so nothing yet is known of the caliber of the squads.

The next game will be tonight with Santa Rosa. Two hard games are expected.

Schools Close On December 21

Because of the lengthened Thanksgiving vacation, school will not close for Christmas until the afternoon of December 21, and will open again January 3, according to A. C. Argo, principal of the Sequoia Union High School.

This will allow a 12-day vacation instead of the usual two weeks, since the three day teachers' institute was held during Thanksgiving week this year.

'Wooden Shoes' On Yule Stage

Because of the satisfactory attendance of the community at the recent operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii," "A Wooden Shoe Christmas," new three-act operetta written by Otis M. Carrington, head of Sequoia Union High School's music department, will be presented free of charge by the second period choral class in the Sequoia auditorium December 16 as a Christmas gift to the community.

This year one hundred schools are putting on this operetta, Mr. Carrington's third with a Christmas theme, and written this summer.

Sequoia Band Plays Tonight

With Tom Kane, manager of the local theater, leading "The Village Band," the chief humorous number, the Sequoia Union High School band will present its first public program tonight at the Sequoia Theater.

The other selections to be played are: "King Cotton," one of Sousa's popular marches; "Overture Euterpean," "The Glow Worm," both of these being light overtures; "Sally Trombone," putting the trombone section under the spotlight; "Long, Long Ago," a clarinet solo to be played by Bert Whiting; and "On the Mall," Goldman's best liked march.

Proceeds from the concert are to go to the band for supplies, according to Max Gelber, director of the band.

Man Is Injured When Own Car Runs Over Him

George Hunt, of 328 St. Francis avenue, this city, suffered multiple lacerations and contusions Tuesday evening when his own car ran over him.

Hunt was cranking the car, which was in gear. When it started up, he was unable to halt it, and the car ran over him. Dr. H. A. Clattenburg treated him. The mishap occurred on Jefferson avenue, just east of Broadway.
